At the hour set for trial the plaintiff appeared in Court with his Attorney. Defendant J. G. Hoskins appeared in answer to the Subpoena. Defendant S. B. Reynolds did not appear, nor did defendant's attorney.After waiting one hour and Defendant Reynolds not appearing nor defendant's attorney, and the Constable having called the names of S. B. Reynolds and R. R. Fowler three times from the Court-room door the case was proceeded with. The plaintiff was sworn and identified the ^{original} note which was put in evidence and testified that although the property which was given as consideration for the note ^{had been returned} he also had an account against defendants for $101.80 and it was understood between him and defendants at the time of the re-delivery of the property that plaintiff should still hold the note as security for the said account. Defendant J. G. Hoskins was sworn and he corroborated the essential parts of plaintiff's testimony

Feb 20th Case set for trial Mar 3rd 1906 and notice sent to plaintiffs attorney.

Feb 23rd 1906, Notice of time of trial returned served on defendants attorney G. S. Goucher in Madera, Madera County Feb 21st 1906, Service admitted for defendant.

March 3rd This cause having been brought on to be heard this day, upon the complaint of plaintiff above named, and the answer of the defendant, said defendant having been duly served with a notice, in due form of law, that this cause was set for trial on this date at 10 o'clock a.m., and said notice having been served and returned in the manner required for service of summons, more than five days before the day set for said trial, and filed in this action, and one full hour having elapsed after the hour set for said trial, and the defendant having failed to appear in person or by attorney; now on motion of George W. Mordesai Jr. Esq. appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and a trial by jury having been expressly waived, this cause was tried before the court sitting without a jury; whereupon the plaintiff was examined on his own behalf,
